Any dog who has a contagious disease, or any dog in the same household (and in some cases any dog who has been exposed to a contagious disease), is excluded from any ADAA sanctioned event as outlined in the Canine Contagious Disease Policy. By entering this ADAA sanctioned event you agree that you have read and understand the Canine Contagious Disease Policy, which is available at: <http://www.adaa.com.au/policies/POL-MEM-031-Canine-Contagious-Diseases-Policy.pdf> By registering for this event you agree that you have read and understand the ADAA refund policy which is available at <http://adaa.com.au/policies/POL-FIN-13-Refund-Policy-080124.pdf> and by lodging your registration, you agree with and are bound by the ADAA refund policy.

Mock Competition Rules:

There will be four courses set across two rings. Each course will have two sets of numbers, one for beginners, one for open dogs. You are not obliged to run the numbers. Each run will be 2 minutes, in that time you can use the course however you like. You may reward with toy or food (if using food please be considerate and don't throw food on the ground or on equipment and choose a food that won't break up and drop on the ground). You can enter for as many runs as you like (ie you are not restricted to one run per dog per height). Rules of conduct are the same as for all ADAA events and harsh handling will not be tolerated.
